Kyle Ranch Hosts SMU Mustangs

Kyle Ranch, owned by Pete & Tamra Kyle, is pleased to be boarding and training the Southern Methodist University's mascots Liberty and Justice. The two seven year old geldings have been at the ranch for almost three years perfecting their skills for SMU football games. Liberty and Justice are owned by Madeleine Pickens who is partnered with SMU Football coach, June Jones, in the foundation, Saving America's Mustangs. Both thought that the new mascots would help bring awareness to the difficulties of wild mustangs as well as represent the pride and team spirit of SMU. Liberty and Justice take part in the "Mustang Walk" leading the team members to the stadium and then onto the field before the official kickoff of every home game. After each quarter, the mustangs switch ends of the field, so all the fans have a chance to see them. Pete and his sons Ryan and Reed have participated in the football games as well as other riders from the ranch. They had the opportunity to accompany the mustangs to the Hawaii Bowl in 2009. This season's riders are Lauren Jolly from England and Sabrina Thiel from Germany. Pete and Tamra have owned and operated Kyle Ranch for 16 years.
